Summer Camp

Composer: Words and music by Mary Potter

Here we are, here we are, and what are we going to do?

1.

We're gonna cook and eat and wash up, explore and have some fun,
We'll stick to what we're doing, until the job is done,
We'll rise to ev'ry challenge however big or small,
'Cos when we've reached the summit, we all feel ten feet tall!

Chorus:

Because it's Summer Camp!

Summer Camp!

Never mind the biscuits and the bedclothes are all damp,

Just ignore the blisters the aches and pains and cramp,

'Cos it's Summer, Summer,

Summer Camp!

2.

We're gonna doze off under canvas, come rain or hail or shine,

And if you lose your T-shirt, I'll lend you one of mine,

We'll do some orienteering, and find our way back home,

With all our mates around us, we'll never feel alone: (Chorus)

3.

We're gonna climb up on our surfboards, and ride along the waves,

We'll rope ourselves together, and tunnel through the caves,

We'll light a roaring campfire, and sit around and sing,

And wonder what adventures, the next few days will bring: (Chorus)
